

MRS. GERALD LEE RAMEY
... former Theresa Cozzolino
(photo by Crotty)

Cozzolino-Ramey Nuptials Recited

Miss Theresa Cozzolino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cozzolino of 922 Gastine St., became the bride of Gerald Lee Ramey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ramey of 615 E. 219th St., in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Harold Boyd at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 4 at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Baskets of carnations and stock decorated the altar. More than 300 guests were in attendance.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white floor-length lace gown with a scalloped neckline, and long sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Robinson, maid of honor, and Miss Andrea Morrisk, bridesmaid, were attired in matching ballerina-length gowns of pink silk organza and carried bouquets of pink carnations and roses.

Best man Darrell Lee Ramey had as his attendants: Jerry Pennington, Bernie Isabel and Ralph Ribas.

Musical selections included "Love's More Excellent Way" and "Jehovah, God, My Shephard."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Torrance Lomita Board of Realtors. Miss Margie Weiss presided at the guest book.

A 1962 graduate of Narbonne High School, the bride is employed as a secretary at Security Title Insurance Co. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Banning High School in 1961, is affiliated with Vegetable Oil Products.

The couple is at home at 1754 Martina following a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and Carmel.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

☆

CARNIVAL PLANS are discussed by members of St. Philomena Women's Council as they prepare for the two-day event to be held this weekend on the school grounds at 21900 S. Main St. Featured attractions will include game and refreshments booths, a chicken dinner and awarding of a station wagon and portable television set. Checking details are: (l-r) Mmes. Richard Tracy, second vice-president; Michael Marinovich, president; and James Donovan, first vice-president. Looking on are Mike Tracy, 9, left, and Michele Marinovich, 6, right. —PRESS photo

Scouting Around

PACK 755C

The 223rd St. School Auditorium was scene of the recent annual Pinewood Derby. Trophies were presented to Kenneth Carroll for the best looking car and Paul Smith for the fastest car: David Blunt, second place, and Kenneth Marcus, third place.

Harold Burgener, neighborhood commissioner, presented pack charter for the coming year to Mrs. Harold Burgener, president of the 223rd Street PTA.

Awards were given by Robert Elliot, assistant cubmaster and the following boys: Steven Mitchell, bobcat and assistant denner; Dennis Ogle, bobcat; John Cameron, bear badge, one gold arrow, three silver arrows.

Paul Cook, denner badge, three silver arrows, one gold arrow, bear badge; Bill Tracy, one year pin, one gold arrow; John Carman, assistant denner, one year pin.

Kenneth Marcus, one silver arrow; Kenneth Carrell, lion badge, one gold arrow; Raymond Blair, one silver arrow; Richard James, wolf badge, assistant denner.

Steve Norris, one gold arrow, denner; Michael Doer, one silver arrow; Randal Cox, bear badge, one silver arrow, one gold arrow.

SISTERHOOD TEA SET FOR SUNDAY

The Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid will hold a mother-daughter tea Sunday from 2:30 to 4:30 at the Grandview Women's Club in Palos Verdes Estates.

Entertainment will be furnished by the Barbara School of Dance, a division of the Palos Verdes Academy of Arts. Prizes will be awarded to mothers, daughters and grandmothers by a committee of judges comprised of mothers of sons.

Committee members are: Mmes. Jack Esensten, Joseph Cohen, Richard Gold, Emanuel Diamant and Robert Rockoff. Persons desiring ticket information are asked to call FR 8-2502.

Steven Stone, wolf badge, one gold arrow, one silver arrow, assistant denner; Stuart Zawacky, lion badge, denner; Randal Mitchell, bobcat; Larry Mitchell, denner; Joe Danford, one silver arrow, assistant denner; Gary Haraguchi, denner; Martin Burgener, assistant denner.

Inspection tomahawk went to Den 3. Banner for parent attendance was awarded to the Webelos Den. The April outing was a trip to the Lions' Drag Strip in Wilmington. The Webelos also spent a Saturday bowling.

Paul Danford is cubmaster for Pack 755C. The sponsor is the 223rd Street School PTA.

Carnival Set for Weekend

St. Philomena Women's Council members will combine efforts with members of the Men's Council to present the annual parish carnival on the school grounds, 21900 S. Main St., Saturday and Sunday.

Proceeds of the event will be used to reduce the parish debt, according to Father Frederick Callahan, pastor. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Michael Marinovich, president of the Women's Council, and Robert Gese, president of the Men's Council.

Highlighting events will be the serving of a chicken dinner Sunday to be followed by the awarding of a station wagon and portable television set.

Booths and games to be featured both days include: baked goods, fish pond, balloon dart, novelty booth, poodle booth, stuffed toy booth, sno-cone and popcorn wagon, soft drink trailer, taco booth, country store, and hamburger and hot dog stands.

SET SOCIAL EVENING

The Torrance Republican Federated Women's Club has planned a social for the night of June 1 to be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Jones, 22723 Eriel St. Persons interested in joining the club are asked to contact Mrs. Don Mehling, FR 7-5610. Meetings are held every third Tuesday at the International House of Pancakes, Del Amo at 10 p.m.

Deadline Tomorrow

Reservations deadline is tomorrow for awards luncheon of Little Co. of Mary Hospital to be held Thursday, June 6 at Polynesian Restaurant. Persons desiring to place reservations have been asked to contact Mmes. T. L. Montgomery at TE 3-3098, May Ingles, FR 9-7808, or Harry Titue, FR 1-2652.

Candlelight Installation Held by Wesleyan Guild

Mrs. Irene Steele was installed as president of the Wesleyan Service Guild Tuesday evening, May 21 at a dinner meeting at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Gilbert Zimmerman, wife of the pastor, was installing officer.

Installation was held in the Friendship Room of the church which was decorated for the occasion with floral arrangements. Candles were used as symbols of office as Mrs. Zimmerman charged the officers with their duties.

Other officers and chairman installed were: Miss Molly Marshall, vice president; Miss Pauline Greer, recording secretary; Mrs. Chelcia Shelby, treasurer; Mrs. Ethel Hutchison, promotion secretary; Mrs. Sara Hogue, coordinator; Mrs. Catherine Baker, spiritual life; Mrs. Trudy Campbell, membership; Mrs. Peggy Jones, supply work; Odell Lewis, publicity; Mrs. Virginia Sloat, literature and publications; Mrs. Betty Harrison, local church activities; Mrs. Cina Holland, historian; Mrs. Lois Sluga, education; Mrs. Marion Gunter, Christian social relations; Mrs. Dorothy Goldsmith and Olive Marshall, hostesses; Mrs. Lenora Gray, sunshine chairman; Mrs. Beulah Strom, Mrs. Leona Eads and Mrs. Doris Tanner, nominating committee.

Mrs. Leona Eads performed the pledge service and presented Mrs. Trudie Campbell, outgoing president, with a life-time membership pin.

Special guests at the dinner were Mrs. Pat Peterson and Mrs. Pat Thom.

The organization is comprised of women who are employed and are unable to take part in the daily activities of the church. Women interested in membership are asked to contact Mrs. Trudie Campbell, 2276 El Dorado.

Hadassah Officers To Be Installed

Installation of newly-elected officers of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will be held at The Palynesian Restaurant at noon, Tuesday.

Mrs. Harold Strauss, area vice president, and advisor to the South Bay Chapter, will be installing officer.

Installed will be Mmes. Robert Breakstone, president; Jack Mishlove, organization vice president; Walter Raine, program vice president; Aaron Rodkin, education vice president; Nan Sattton, membership vice president; Frank Goetz, fund-raising vice president; Rae Frome, recording secretary; Robert Mann, corresponding secretary; and Abraham Janoff, financial secretary. Mrs. Stern is outgoing president of the chapter.

Guests will include Rabbi

Leonard Helman of Temple Beth-El, San Pedro, who will give the invocation and Richard Darling, manager of the Redondo Beach branch of the American Savings and Loan Association. Sebastian and his guitar will entertain.

At the recent conference of the Southern Pacific Coast Region of Hadassah, which includes twenty-four chapters, the South Bay Chapter received the second largest number of awards presented. There will be a trophy table at the luncheon and all of the plaques and other awards will be displayed.

The planning committee includes: Mmes. Max Stern, Edward Lookman, Arthur Jurmain, Ben Conde and Myron Katz. Reservations to attend the luncheon may be made by calling DA 6-6748 or FR 5-8189. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Riviera Garden Club Names Show Winners

Riviera Garden Club held its recent annual flower show and tea, "May Flower Fashions," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles John.

Floral arrangements filled every room of the John Residence. Gracing the tea table was a centerpiece in tones of aqua by Walteria Florists.

Sweepstake prize for capturing the most ribbons in the show went to Mrs. Robert E. Baker.

Mrs. Ralph Lindsey and Mrs. C. W. Gilkes judged the exhibits which included indoor, out door and children's arrangements.

Winners were:
Placement in living room: Mmes. Frank Perkins, first place; Robert Short, second prize; Clifford Motley, third prize; and Neill Scott, honorary mention; placement in dining room: Mmes. Howard Swarouth, first place; Robert Underwood second place and Robert Short, third place.

Master bedroom placement: Mrs. Robert Baker, first place and Mrs. Hugh Brensman, second place; master bath placement: Mrs. Thomas Stuelpnagel first place and Mrs. Edgar Tuller, second place; playroom placement: Mrs. Leslie Curtis, first place and George Shipway, second place.

Floral arrangements for garden and patio: Mmes. Robert Baker, first place, Robert Atha, second place, and Gene Voorhees, honorary mention; non-floral garden and patio arrangements: Mmes. Clifford Motley, first place, Neill Scott, second place; Hollis Jewell, third place, and Robert Baker, honorary mention.

Miniature arrangements: two-inch class: Mrs. Robert Baer; five-inch class: Mmes. Robert Baker, first place; Frank Perkins, second place; High Brenamen, third place; and Clifford Motley, honorary mention.

Horticultural specimens: annuals category: Mrs. Robert Short, first place, and Mrs. Hollis Jewell, second place; perennials category: Mmes. George Shipway, first and second place; Thomas Stuelpnagel and Robert Sauer, tied for second place; bulbs: Mrs. Robert Sauer and Hugh Brennaman, tied for first.

Children's arrangements: Cheryl Voorhees, Paula Johnson, Nancy Baker, Carol Sauer, Andy Scott, Karen Shipway, John Stuelpnagel, Missy Short, Robby Johnson, and Lori Atha.

Pilot Club Installs Officers

Terrace Room at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant was the setting for the ninth annual installation banquet of the Pilot Club of Torrance Thursday.

Mrs. W. E. Bowen was installed as president by Mrs. Betty Neighbors, Governor of District No. 18 and member of the Van Nuys Club.

Other officers installed were: Miss Mae Sleep, first vice president; Mmes. Kenneth Beight, second vice president; Dorothea Howard, recording secretary; Philip Clark, corresponding secretary; Joan Luump treasurer; J. K. Burefield and Charles Moore, directors and Herma Tillim, immediate past president.

Miss Lauren Siegel, senior at West High School was the recipient of the Scholarship Award.

Mrs. Tillim, gave a brief resume of committee accomplishments and activities during the past year.

The Pilot Club of Torrance is a member club of Pilot International, one of the five international classified service organizations for business and professional women. The first Pilot Club was organized in Macon, Ga., October 18, 1921. The name Pilot was chosen because it means Leader and Guide and the word International was added because the far-sighted founders visualized an organization which would become international in scope.

The motto of Pilot is "True Course Ever." Theme for this year is "Leadership through Service."

RECEIVING SECOND LARGEST number of awards presented at the recent conference of the Southern Pacific Coast Region of Hadassah was the South Bay Chapter. Trophies will be displayed at an installation luncheon to be held at noon Tuesday at the Polynesian Restaurant. Pictured are: (l-r) Mmes. Jack Mishlove, incoming organization vice-president; Walter Raine, incoming program vice president; Max Stern, outgoing president; and Robert Breakstone, incoming president.

—PRESS photo